Global Macro and Market Theme

The month of June was generally positive for risk assets. Treasuries, credit spreads, and equities rallied as expectations of more central bank easing, the aversion of American tariffs on Mexican goods, and a "truce" in the U.S.-China trade war drove demand for a large breadth of financial assets.

After reaching an agreement on immigration cooperation, the Trump administration suspended the imposition of steep tariffs on products from Mexico. Later in the month, at the G20 Summit in Japan, U.S. and China agreed to renew trade negotiations and not impose additional tariffs on each other for the time being. These events pushed global stock markets higher. The S&P 500 closed the month up 7.1%, outperforming Emerging Markets and Europe (up 6.2% and 6.7% respectively).

At its June meeting, the Federal Reserve opened the window to an interest rate cut in July. This drove the yield on the 10-year Treasury to below 2.0% as market participants priced in as many as four 25bps Fed cuts over the next 12 months, driving parts of the yield curve to further invert. Against this backdrop, US Aggregate bonds rallied 1.3%, outperforming U.S. TIPS (+0.9%) but underperforming U.S. High Yield (+2.3%). Meanwhile the German 10-year government bond yield fell further into negative yield territory and reached -0.33%.

Hedge Funds posted - on average - positive results for the month, with the HFRI FoF Diversified up 1.4%. Equity Long/Short managers fared the best (HFRI Equity Hedge, +3.2%) while Relative Value strategies lagged (HFRI Relative Value, +1.2% %). Finally, gold rallied 8.0%, outperforming Brent oil, which climbed 3.2%.

Important Information

Calculation Methodology in this Report

From time to time, we make enhancements to the systems that generate this performance report. Updates that went into effect on December 8, 2017 may result in changes to performance data and other presentations in this report.

Performance

Past performance does not guarantee future results. You could get back less than you invest. Returns for periods greater than one year are annualized, and returns for periods less than one year are not annualized. Percentages may not add to 100% due to rounding. Performance reflects time-weighted rates of return.

"Gross of Fees" returns reflect fees paid by any funds in which the selected accounts invest (i.e., fees embedded in the valuation of underlying funds) and certain transaction costs. As well as those fees, Net of Fees returns reflect the advisory fees paid to J.P. Morgan for the services it provides in any investment management accounts and advisory accounts, and any additional product fees for investment vehicles in these accounts, based in each case on the total market value of managed assets in the account. Net of Fees returns might not include certain miscellaneous fees or expenses in any type of account. Net of Fees returns would be lower if they reflected all fees and expenses. Please see your account statement for all fees charged to your account.

Returns shown for asset classes and Separately Reported Investments do not reflect the deduction of any fees or expenses, other than embedded fund-level fees and certain transaction costs. These returns would be lower if they reflected all fees and expenses. If this report includes Separately Reported Investments, they are included in the Total Portfolio, and this section also shows the Total Portfolio less Separately Reported Investments.

The Inception Date is generally the last day of the month in which the account was opened or in which the index was established (except that, for indices established before the portfolio's Inception Date, the Inception Date shown for the index is instead the portfolio's Inception Date).

But it might not be accurate or complete, and we are not liable for any loss or damage (whether direct or indirect) arising from your use of this information. We are not obligated to update you if information in this report is corrected or changes for any other reason.

Any views, opinions or estimates expressed in the "Global Macro and Market Theme" section are general views, which are not specific to your circumstances and might not be suitable for you. They may differ from those expressed by other areas of J.P. Morgan, or from views expressed for other purposes or in other contexts. They constitute our judgment based on current market conditions and are subject to change without notice. Any forward looking statements are not guarantees or predictions of future events. Any projected results are based on assumptions, and actual results could differ. This report is not a research report.

Tax

J.P. Morgan and its affiliates and employees do not provide tax, legal or accounting advice. Please consult your own tax, legal and accounting advisors before engaging in any financial transactions.

Valuation

To calculate the performance in this report, we may value an asset using one of our own pricing models or an external pricing service. Its resulting value could be based on, among other things, estimates and assumptions about relevant future market conditions, which are subject to change without notice. The values used for this report may differ from those in other documents, such as statements and performance reports, because of, e.g., updated pricing, late posted trades and income accruals.

Conflicts Of Interest

Conflicts of interest will arise whenever JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or any of its affiliates (together, "J.P. Morgan" in this "Conflicts of Interest" section) have an actual or perceived economic or other incentive in its management of its clients' portfolios to act in a way that benefits J.P. Morgan. Conflicts will result, for example: (1) when J.P. Morgan invests in an investment product, such as a mutual fund, structured product, separately managed account or hedge fund issued or managed by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. or an affiliate, such as J.P. Morgan Investment Management Inc.; (2) when J.P. Morgan obtains services, including trade execution and trade clearing, from an affiliate; (3) when J.P. Morgan receives payment as a result of purchasing an investment product for a client's account; or (4) when J.P. Morgan receives payment for providing services (including shareholder servicing, recordkeeping or custody) with respect to investment products purchased for a client's portfolio. Other conflicts will result because of relationships that J.P. Morgan has with other clients or when J.P. Morgan acts for its own account.

Investment strategies are selected from both J.P. Morgan and third-party asset managers and are subject to a review process by J.P. Morgan's manager research teams. From this pool of strategies, J.P. Morgan's portfolio construction teams select those strategies it believes fit its asset allocation goals and forward looking views in order to meet the portfolio's investment objective.

As a general matter, we prefer J.P. Morgan managed strategies. We expect the proportion of J.P. Morgan managed strategies will be high (in fact, up to 100%) in strategies such as, for example, cash and high-quality fixed income, subject to applicable law and any account-specific considerations.

While internally managed strategies generally align well with J.P. Morgan's forward looking views, and J.P. Morgan is familiar with the investment processes as well as the risk and compliance philosophy of the firm, it is important to note that J.P. Morgan receives more overall fees when internally managed strategies are included. J.P. Morgan offers the option of choosing to exclude J.P. Morgan managed strategies (other than cash and liquidity products) in certain portfolios.

The Six Circles Funds are mutual funds managed by J.P. Morgan and sub-advised by third parties. Although considered internally managed strategies, J.P. Morgan does not retain a fee for fund management or other fund services.

Benchmark Indices

Indices are unmanaged. They do not reflect management fees, transaction costs or other expenses, and assume reinvestment of dividends and interest. An individual cannot invest directly in an index. Past performance of any index does not guarantee future results.

Your Benchmark is comprised of one or more indices. If index data is not available throughout a period, a return for that index and the Benchmark cannot be calculated for the period (n/a). If this report covers only accounts opened under a single Discretionary Portfolio Mandate, your Benchmark is based on the Strategic Asset Allocation in your Discretionary Portfolio Mandate. If this report covers only accounts forming part of a single Holistic Group, your Benchmark is the custom blended benchmark that you and your J.P. Morgan representative have agreed to show for informational purposes. It might not be a meaningful comparison to your Holistic Group returns. Your Holistic Group is not managed by J.P. Morgan as a collective group of accounts or with reference to your Benchmark, and we have no duty to periodically review or recommend changes to the Holistic Group's Benchmark. Please contact your J.P. Morgan representative if you would like to change the Benchmark for your Holistic Group.
